

CHANGE LEADERSHIP SERIES

This program is designed to enhance an individual's adaptability to change, a crucial life skill. Participants will delve into understanding their personal responses to change, gaining valuable insights and tools to not only navigate but thrive in dynamic work environments. By investing in this program, individuals not only enhance their personal adaptability but also gain a competitive edge in the professional arena, positioning themselves as valuable assets capable of leading others and steering businesses through the complexities of change.

PROGRAM INFORMATION

01

The Personal Side of Change

Thursday, May 9th • 12 - 1:30pm CT

- Recognize personal reactions to change
- Discuss a change management model
- Develop strategies to help manage personal reactions and responses to change

02

Managing Others During Change

Thursday, May 16th • 12 - 1:30pm CT

- Recognize change adoption for employees
- Discuss techniques for managing resistance to change
- Identify ways to help others cope with change

03

Leading the Business in Times of Ambiguity

Thursday, May 23rd • 12-1:30pm CT

- Recognize the importance of agility
- Recognize the role trust plays in advancing the business
- Identify opportunities to influence others
- Utilize decision making principles

Sessions are facilitated by experienced business leaders who bring real-world insights, practical strategies, and wisdom, enriching the learning experience with tangible knowledge.

Program cost is $835 and includes all three sessions, live via Zoom. Use code "C4LI0" for 10% off.

CLICK HERE FOR PROGRAM REGISTRATION

Exclusive benefits for leadership development are available to IRMA members.

For more details, please email Candice Holden at cholden@lfgsm.edu